Speaker: Gareth Davies was elected as the Member of Parliament for Grantham & Stamford at the 2019 general election. Gareth was born and raised in Yorkshire, the eldest of two sons to his mum, a state primary school teacher, and his dad, a small business owner. Gareth attended state comprehensive schools in Leeds and loved playing football, tennis and cricket. He has served on a national government task force for HM Treasury and the Cabinet Office. In 2014, Gareth helped establish a £100m fund that invests in UK infrastructure, universities, charities and housing authorities. He has also been on the Conservative Party's National Economic Policy Taskforce. In 2018, Gareth was named one of Europe's top 'rising stars' by Financial News.
